3) Under the rules of recruitment whenever a vacancy is classed as a promotional one it should be filled up only by promoting a deserving official from the lower grade. If for any reason a promotional vacancy cannot be so filled up, then it shall have to be treated as a direct recruitment vacancy after classifying it as general or special according to circumstances as indicated in red ink in the statement (Flag T). Such instructions have been conveyed by Government to the Director of Public Instruction in Mysore in a case almost similar to the present one in para 2 of their letter No.1359/CRB-13-38 dated 9th September 1938.

4) The utilisation of promotional vacancies by the Chief Conservator of Forests in his proposal for appointing trained recruits would, therefore, be not in order. These vacancies are to be dealt with as if they had been direct recruitment vacancies. I am to add also that the vacancy No.62 which on reclassification happens to be a direct recruitment general one has now been utilised for the promotion of a 1st grade -- Forester. This arrangement may be approved subject to the condition that the next promotional vacancy is to be treated as a direct recruitment general vacancy by way of compensation.

9) The Public Service Commissioner's suggestion for treating the vacancies classed as "Promotion" as recruitment "Special" or "General" vacancies will result in depriving the deserving I Grade Foresters of their claims for promotion as Rangers. As it is not intended to deprive them of their chances of promotion, the promotion vacancies may not be classed as recruitment "Special" or General" vacancies as suggested by the Public Service Commissioner.

10) 2. The deviations from recruitment rules involved in filling up the vacancies referred to in my letter of 29th May 1944 are made to facilitate absorption in one batch against available vacancies of all the candidates who successfully passed out of the Forest Ranger's school in the final examination held during September 1943, according to their ranks. Similar deviations have been approved by Government in the past vide Government Orders No. AF. 7071-3/ Ft. 180-40-4 dated 8th April 1941, No. AF. 761-3/Ft. 51-41-8 dated 1st August '42, No. A.F. 1773-5/Ft. 51-41-10 dated 8th September 1942 and letter No. AF. 5840/Ft. 156-42-4 dated 24th April 1943. Approval of Government for the deviations involved may in these circumstances be kindly accorded as requested.

11) The C.C.F. Reports that 15 Vacancies in the Last grade of Rangers have since arisen in the Dept. The first eleven and the fifteenth of these Vacancies have been classified and filled up by the appointment of eleven Candidates (inclusive of two first grade Foresters) who passed out of the Mysore Forest Rangers' School in Sept. 1943. and by the promotion of a deserving I grade Forester in the absence of a trained Candidate. The 12th and the 13th Vacancies have not been classified as they were utilised for continuing the existing arrangements already ordered in the previously registered and classified Vacancies which ceased later. The 14th Vacancy also has not been classified as it has been ~~classified~~ utilised for the appointment of an incumbent who was reverted from and is since reinstated to the grade of Rangers. Rules in filling up Vacancies of Rangers in the Last grade ~~may not~~ as proposed by the C.C.F. may not be approved inspite there are such deviations previously. It may not be helpful to base this case on precedents and to increase the number of such precedents as and when opportunity occurs. Such deviations will defeat the object of recruitment and give undue scope to the Heads of Deptt to go out of the recruitment Rules. Hence, the Views of the P.S.C. may be approved in filling up the Vacancies of Rangers in the present case.

The file relates to the filling up of twelve last class Rangers vacancies by the C.C.F. There have been deviations from the recruitment rules. These are 1) promotion vacancies have been filled up by recruitment, 2) recruitment vacancies by promotion, 3) General vacancies as special and 4) Special vacancies as general. The P.S. Commissioner who has been consulted states that the vacancies may be filled up as per C.A.B. only Vide paras 3, 4 and 26. Supra. The C.C.F states in para 10 that these deviations were made with a view to absorb in one batch all the candidates who successfully passed out of the Forest Rangers School in 1943 final Exam. according to their ranks. So the 11 candidates filled up in Sl. No. 1 to 11 are candidates who have passed out finishing their Klasses according to seniority (in which two Forest guards are also included). In these 11 candidates, 3 are Brahmins and 8 non-brahmins. 4 promotion, 2 general, and 5 special vacancies are involved. The other vacancy in which a Brahmin particular candidate has been promoted is a special recruitment vacancy.

The reclassification of the vacancies

Serial No.
Hagt.	according to the P.S.C is indicated in red ink. According to it, there will be 8 Spl. Vacancies and 4 General Vacancies. Since the C.C.F. has absorbed 8 non-Brahmins and 4 Brahmins, the ratio period fully. Below is given a graph. But then, in reducing vacancies, either the special Brahmins should have first claim of this is proper to be borne in mind. At the point of the P.C. to the effect that in the field exam. has been adopted, should be [illegible] considering such circumstances, based on the high [illegible] that there are [illegible] shortly two years ago by the C.C.F. there may be perhaps approved this only 4 Brahmins against 4 general or non-Brahmin vacancies on the whole have been absorbed. As regards Sec. 8 it is, the non-Brahmin vacancy may be treated as [illegible] General vacancy by way of compensation as proposed by the P.S.C in para (6) [illegible] 30 [illegible] to avoid such difficulties, the C.C.F. may be definitely in future [illegible] may please process orders when deviations of C.A.B. only parade [illegible]. [illegible] case of [illegible] candidate who successfully pass out of the Rangers School it is desirable that a certain number of vacancies are reserved for absorption as they have to greater inducement offered to the candidate to undergo training. While selecting the Candidates, the Communal ratio may be kept in view.

(Sd. Secy) 18/3

31 The above note gives a matter of fact picture of what has happened. In my view, vacancies set apart for or utilised for absorbing the trained personnel should not have been brought under the recruitment classification. The posts of Rangers can only be filled up by specially trained personnel and the communal ratio has got to be taken in to consideration while selecting the candidates; they should not wait for classification of vacancies for their absorption.

32 It is seen that as things stand now the U.B's have got their full share and if anything they are better off. Even they would be if the original classification is stuck to.

33 I suggest that the proposal of the C.C.R may be accepted and it may be a direction in future that vacancies utilised for appointment of Govt trained candidates should not be taken in to consideration at all for classification of vacancies, the communal representation principle having been ensured in these cases at the time of original selection only.
